- All resolutions shall be submitted in writing before there shall be any debate upon them. All matters in the Desert Conference are to be decided by vote, each member having one vote only, unless the question is taken by ballot. The Imperial Deputy of the desert shall be entitled to one vote on all questions and may also give the deciding vote whenever there shall be any equal division, except when the vote is by ballot.
- Each member shall vote on all questions except when he is personally interested, unless specially excused by the Imperial Deputy of the desert.
- No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, unless in explanation, without the permission of the Imperial Deputy of the Desert.
- Each member who speaks shall rise and remain standing, addressing himself to the Imperial Deputy of the Desert. No member shall presume to interrupt a speaker, except on the point of order.
- When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, except to commit, amend or lay on the table.
- A motion to amend, until decided, shall preclude all other amendments of the main question.
- Any member may call for a division of the question when the same will permit it.

- No motion, which totally changes the subject matter on which the original motion was intended to operate, shall be admitted under the color of an amendment, or as a substitute for the motion under debate.
- No member, except one voting in the majority that decided upon the question, shall be allowed to move for reconsideration.
- After a motion is stated by the Imperial Deputy of the Desert, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Desert Conference, and may not be withdrawn by the mover at any time before decision or amendment.
- There shall be no debate upon any question, after the Imperial Deputy of the Desert puts it.
